

A big heart of gold

TATE Mason is a really "good guy" in more than one respect.

The Good Guys Oxley store owner is helping raise funds for HeartKids Queensland, a charity aimed at enhancing the lives of children with heart conditions.

Mr Tate was inspired to support the charity when a close friend and former employee was told their child had a problem heart four years ago.

"The child doesn't have any say in the illness. The mums and dads don't get a say in it," he said.

"Through raising money for this charity, we can help make a family's stay at hospital more comfortable."

This financial year, 10 of The Good Guys stores across Brisbane and the Sunshine Coast have raised about $25,000 for HeartKids Queensland, with the goal of reaching $50,000 by the end of June.

Childhood Heart Disease Awareness will be recognised this month and Mr Mason will donate an amount from every sale at his store during February.
